

The first edition of ICEBF attracted over 100 official and business delegates from 14 Central European countries. Over 200 Indian industry representatives had detailed business engagements with their Central European counterparts. The forum established itself as an institutionalized platform to promote multifaceted engagements with promising Central European economies.

Technological excellence, new innovations across sectors coupled with highly skilled workforce in Central European countries is optimally matched by a fast transforming and resurgent Indian economy. The second edition of the Forum is a continued endeavour for accelerating economic ties between India & Central European countries for mutual gains in the years to come.
